PRACTICAL SOLUTIONS SEMINAR No. 1

SAFE - BUT COOL!

Risk management: play & skate facilities

- One day seminar
- Six informative sessions
- Open Panel discussion

WEDNESDAY, MAY 24, 2000
Chapel off Chapel, 12 Little Chapel Street, Prahran Mel 58 E5

MARY JEAVONS
LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTS

JEAVONS & TP
RECREATION AND TOURISM PLANNING

Brian Ward & Partners

SEMINAR FEATURES
A one day program with...
- high profile, experienced presenters
- show bag & speakers notes
- exhibitors in skate and play construction and maintenance
- panel discussion
- post seminar networking
- professional skate demonstration

WHO SHOULD ATTEND
Design, construction, maintenance and equipment providers to recreation facilities; all those:
- working to meet the needs of youth
- insuring or managing risk
- involved in local government

PROGRAM

9.00 Welcome

9.30 I dare you! Risk management and public facilities
Brian Ward, Brian Ward & Partners

10.15 The youth dilemma - risk vs challenge, planning and consulting teenagers
Sally Jeavons, Jeavons Recreation & Tourism Planners

11.00 Morning break

11.15 Skate Safe Programs Tony Maiuto, City of Melbourne

12.00 Case Study One: Managing risk through urban design
Ian Dryden, City of Melbourne

Lunch Demonstration & discussion on skateboard facilities with Tony Hallam, professional skateboarder.

1.45 Safe but cool play design: what's possible and what's not
Mary Jeavons, Mary Jeavons Landscape Architects.

2.45 Case Study Two: Minimising risk by involving teenagers.
Russell Roberts, Manager Industry Skills Centre Bendigo

3.15 The Panel: your questions answered by the speakers
(plus representative from Youth Advisory Unit, Victoria Police)

4.15 Refreshments, networking and The Panel continues.

5.00 Close.